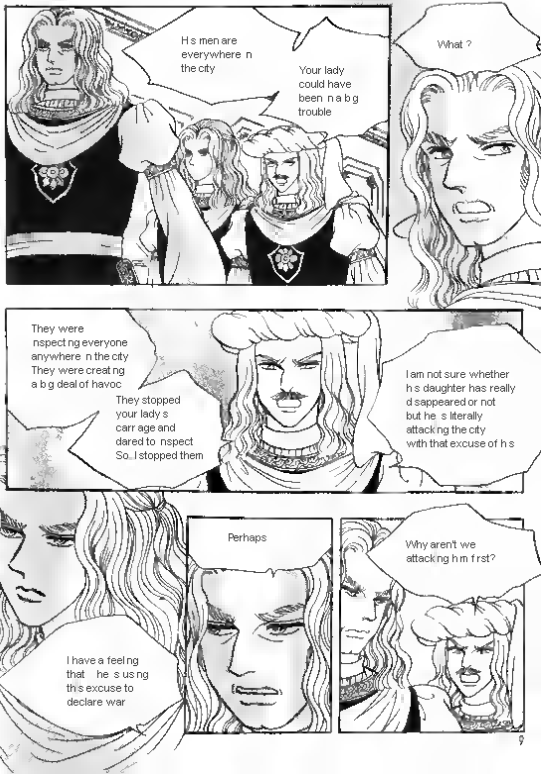
Brother!
Oh you've arrived

I was told that emergency was declared
Yes it has Pretty much everyone has arrived Let s go to the conference room

What has caused the emergency?
Is it beacause of the Barder?



His men are everywhere in the city
Your lady could have been in a big trouble
What ?
They were inspecting everyone anywhere in the city They were creating a big deal of havoc
They stopped your lady's carriage and dared to inspect So..I stopped them
I am not sure whether his daughter has really disappeared or not but he is literally attacking the city with that excuse of his Perhaps
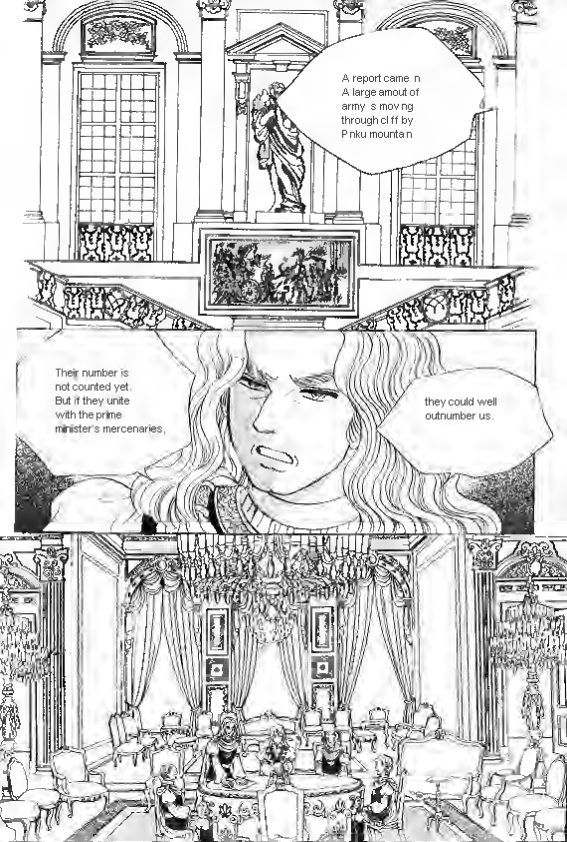
Why aren't we attacking him first?
I have a feeling that he is using this excuse to declare war

We don't have a good reason
Even if someone leaks information that he was indeed trying to revolt and we arrest him, the public will think that it was the king who's wrong
Are you saying we have to sit and wait until he moves first?
The situation has become so
If the king attacks him first and arrests him, the public's trust will leave the king.
At the same time, nobles who support the prime minister will revolt and I am sure certain outside force will not miss their chance to invade Ramira.
We cannot let Skade have everything none shot
Even though it's hard what we must do is wait until he revolts and seize him



A report came in
A large amount of army s mov ng through cl ff by
P nku mountain
Their number is not counted yet.
But if they unite with the prime minister's mercenaries,
they could well
outnumber us.

The royal army 1 2000 men.
Vaida's army 8.000 men.
Army of 5 000 from lord D ku
3 000 from lord Harr ot
2 500 from lord Nuke
Alright cannons have been post oned Th s..s the layout
We w ll now post on our men

M lady !

We are be ng attacked by Anator an sh ps !
There are so many of them on sea They ve surrounded us and k ll ng everyone aboard

Are you sure that they are not pirates ? Why would Anatorian ships attack civilian ships ?
They said a war has occurred in Ramira..
So, they are attacking any Ramira ships in sight !
Already
They are sparing Anatorian and killing any Ramira people
M lady you are an Anatorian
How did you know
I am very sorry I happened to overhear you and general Vada
But I swear that I told no one about it
So please spare me

Miss Barder
Why are you here ?
Why aren't you at the castle ?
I am going right now
Are you insane ?
The castle is the least place you need to be right now

Who ?
Reuten Tor's wife, she said.
As far as I know, he had no wife
She said you'd know who she is once you see her.

Don't you understand ?
If you go to the k ng B yon now you w ll be g v ng your father a clear reason to attack and make h s act on r ghteous
I was go ng to see the k ng
I would have been better to assass nate the pr me m n ster before he revolted But t s too late for that now I was go ng to tell the k ng that you mustn't be n the castle

I should have gotten to the castle before he could contact with his hideout
I say it's the chief guard's fault for not bringing you directly to the castle
Well even if he did bring you to the castle directly your father declearedthat you were kidnapped
No one would have believed that you did it by your own will
Are you saying that no matter what I do

War will occur
and
Leo and I will have to draw out swords at each other

Whether they win or we win
we will still have to threaten each other with swords -
And that is fate that cannot be changed .
Are you say ng
That ?

In order to avoid such fate
Even if I don't get to see him forever
I tr ed to avo d a case where we d be draw ng swords at each other
It took me a lot of guts to make up my m nd

Are you saying all my efforts that I've put into this means nothing at all ?

I told you to make her be here !
. She is a really healthy type. She was becoming immune to the drug
I couldn't dare to use stronger drug because that might threaten her life and wounds Eventually she woke up and She has no place to go ! She isn't allowed anywhere !

So, you escaped to Ramira alone.
And the princess was supposed to follow you, but she did not.
You hid your identity and were living as a servant of lady Sharu.
You were trying to come back to Anatora it just so happens that the lady went on a trip to Anatora So you tagged along
When you arrive in Anatora you plan to escape again and find the princess And then you plan to settle down at where the lord Tor once lived
Do you expect me to believe that story ?
Because it s the truth
Unfortunately I am not in a position to torture you You say that in front of the majesty
I will send you to him right away

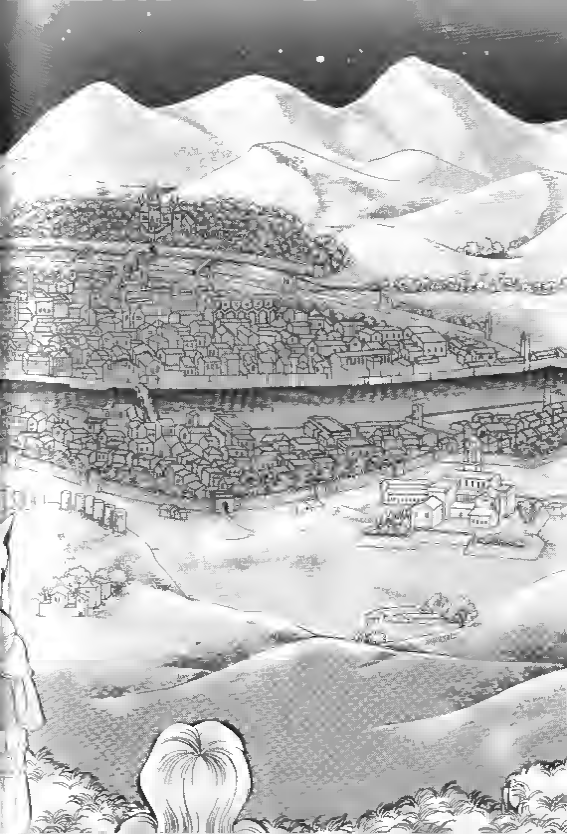
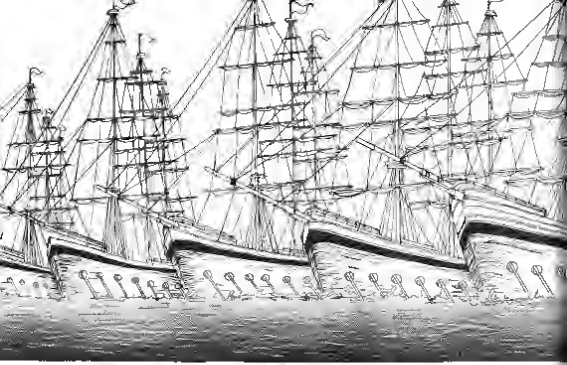
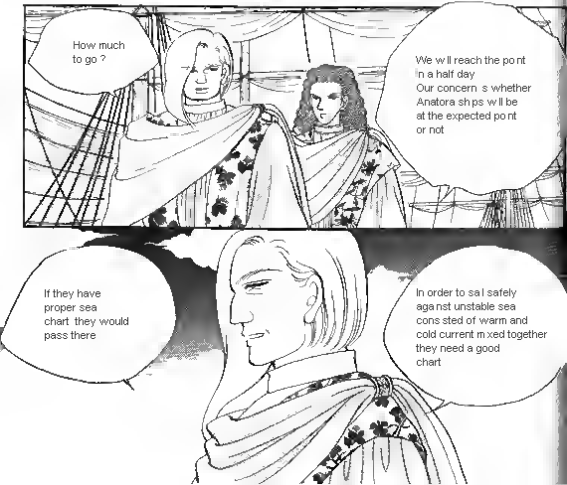
www.janimes.com



The capital seems to be awfully calm. Perhaps, they don't know about us ?
They do know.
Construct our base here !

프린세스 Princess





How much to go ?
We will reach the point in a half day Our concern is whether Anatora ships will be at the expected point or not
If they have proper sea chart they would pass there
In order to sail safely against unstable sea consisted of warm and cold current mixed together they need a good chart

As far as sea chart goes, no one makes a better chart than Ramra
Their instinct about sea makes a very accurate chart
However the chart they released to the world is only a limited version of their true chart
Their true chart is only given to admirals of Ramra
What I would like to know is if admiral Galron knows about the legendary chart. After all he is a general of Korshka
I don't know whether he is moving strictly by orders or using his own brain Admiral!
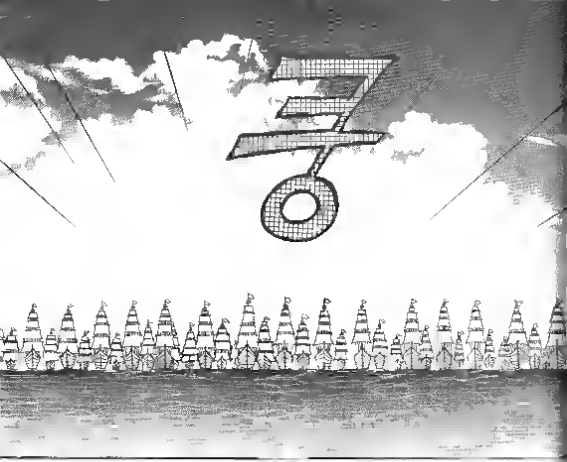
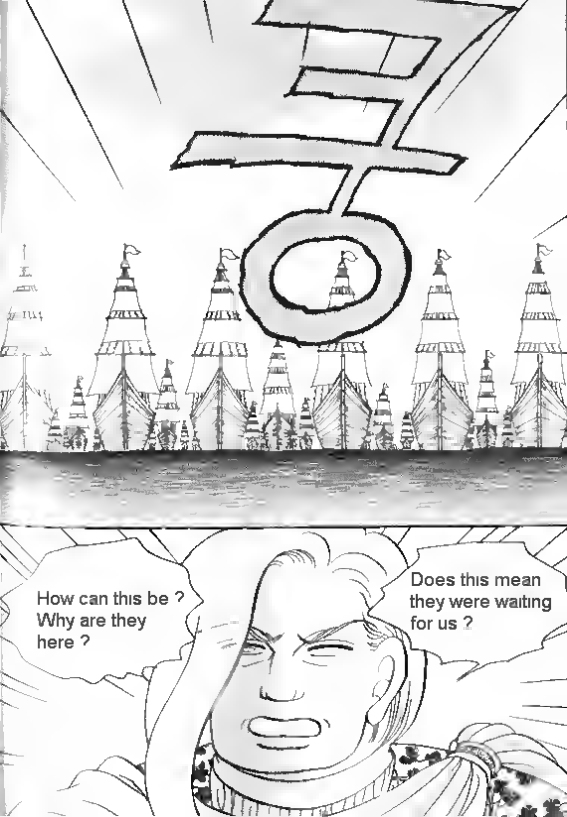
What's it?
Anatora ships appeared in front of us!

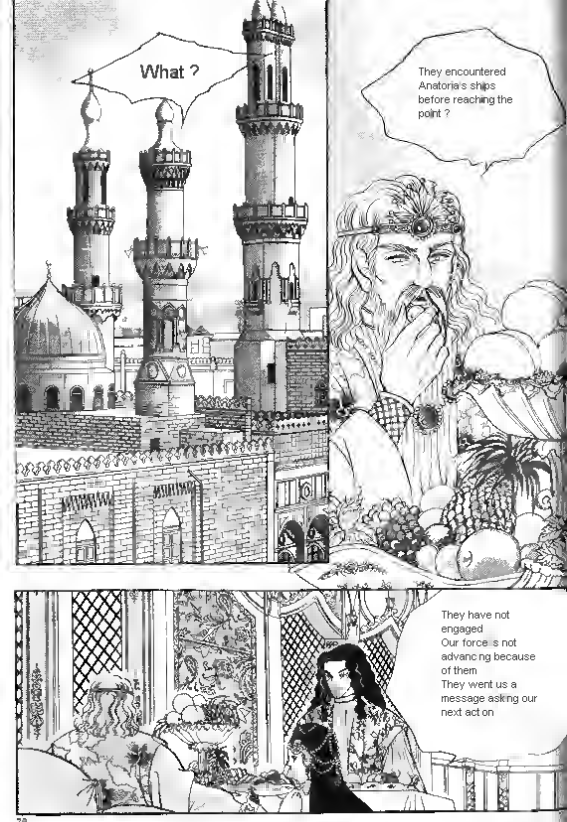


Are you absolutely certain ?

Yes ! Over there ther flags !



How can this be ? Why are they here ?
Does this mean they were waiting for us ?

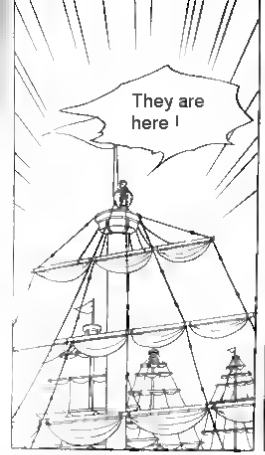


What ?
They encountered Anatoria's ships before reaching the point ?
They have not engaged
Our force is not advancing because of them
They went us a message asking our next act on

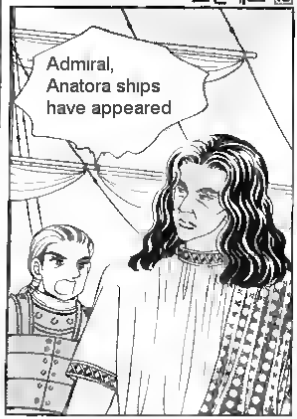
They are going to deal with us and deal with Galron afterward ?
I can't seem to figure out why they aren't heading to Ramira and blocking our path instead.
... Perhaps, we've underestmated Anatoria's naval force.
Tor must be confident that he can defeat our naval force and defeat Galron
It looks like Skadel has been preparing for this longer than I expected

www.janimes.com

Skador force is not moving at all
They must be confused. This is not a part of their plan.
Is it alright for us just to stay here and do nothing?
Our sole purpose is to block Skador reinforcement from advancing
Baran will deal with Galron



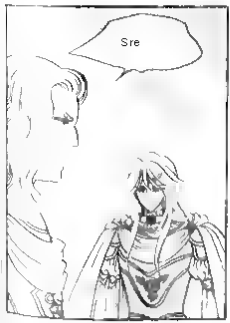
They are here !



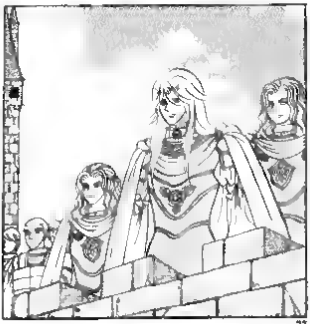
Admiral, Anatora ships have appeared

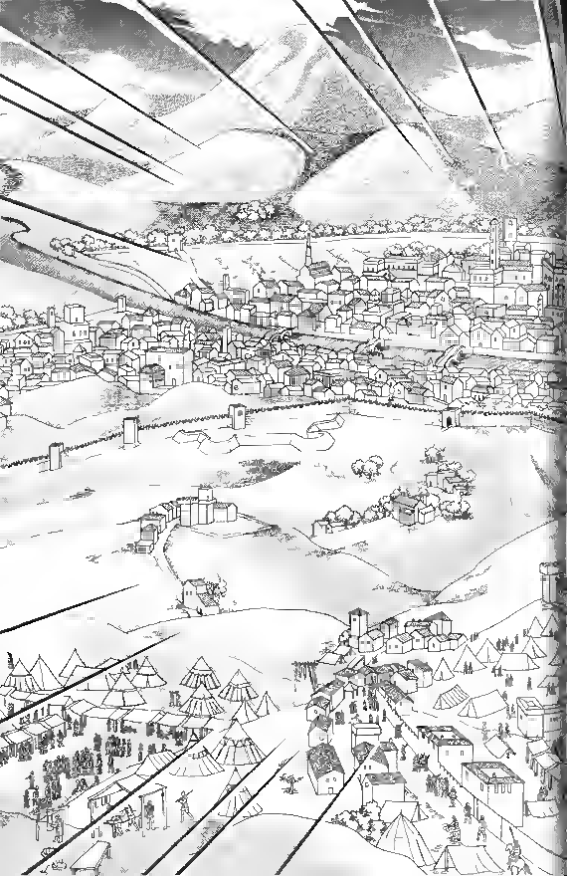
Any word from Skador ?
Negat ve sr
Number of enemy sh ps ?
Count the r number of sh ps

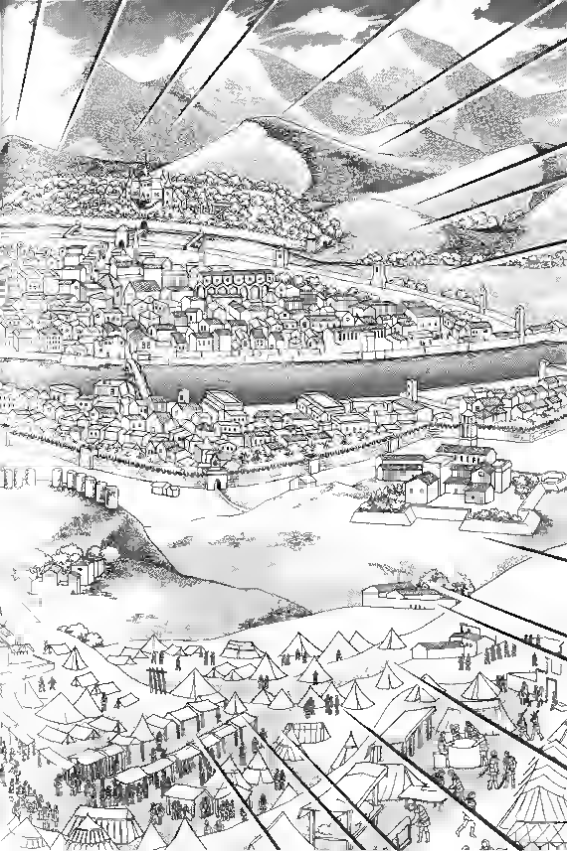
There are a lot !
At least more than 50 ships
Our number is twnety five ...
They outnumber us by at least twice
Retreat a little.

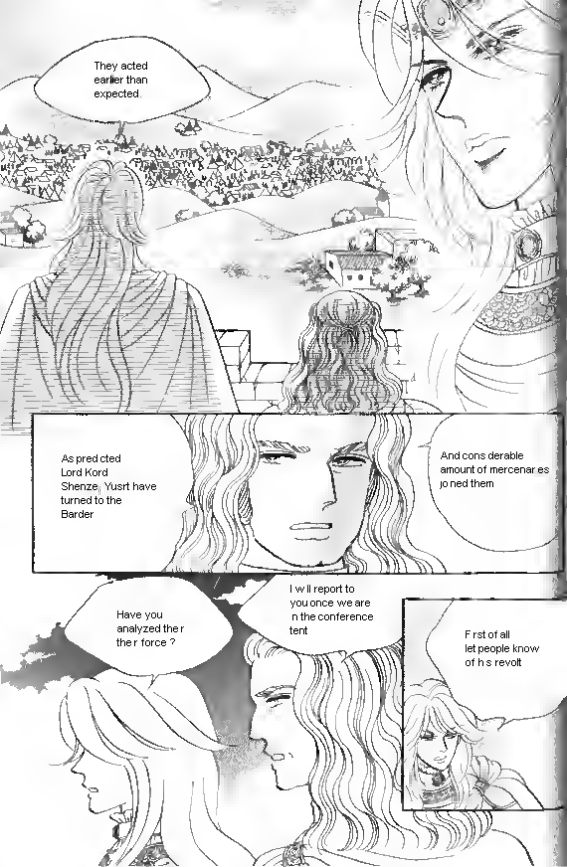


Sre









They acted earlier than expected.
As predicted Lord Kord Shenze, Yusrt have turned to the Barder
And considerable amount of mercenaries joined them
Have you analyzed their force ?
I will report to you once we are in the conference tent
First of all let people know of his revolt

The prime minister Barder has revolted !
His army is heading to the capital !
In case of the worst, the king orders you to be armed !

Yes
Come in
Could I brrow a sword ?
Do women have to be armed as well ?
It wouldn't hurt to have a dagger for self protect on
But I would lke a real sword

I will ask guards.
You see, there is no man in this house. So ...
Ah your brothers must have went to fight in your family
Unfortunately... I am the only child
I've always envied of a family that has sons The first son would carry on the house and the other sons would learn sailing and trading
No, if
If I was a son
If so
Maybe
Is that why you dress like a man ?
This war wouldn't have happened
www.jamimes.com

Th s suits better for me
But you are so beaut ful
t is not much but I could lend you my dress
Thanks but th s outfit s better for me to use a sword
Are you go ng to jo n the war ?
I am n no posit on to f ght for anyone

He has recently started learning swordsmanship.
He's studying properly as well. I believe he is becoming stable.
Until he becomes more stable I think you should not see him
Yes

So, this is Lord Tor's son, huh.
Sad, isn't it. Just because he has a bad father, he has to be killed.
Finish him quickly

It was easy to obtain Miss Barder's portrait They had posted her portrait all over the city because she was kidnapped
One of royal artist of Ramra was a friend of mine who have studied with me back in Florence I was able to obtain a piece of the queen's portrait while I was staying at his house
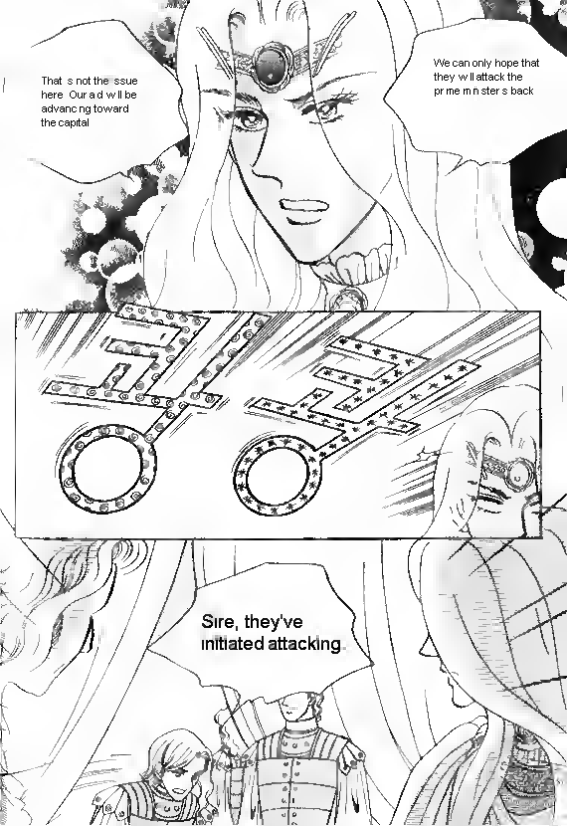
Good work and our Nuke and Harr ot they are all lords of soutern reg on

This could mean only thing. They've been waiting near here all this time.
How could they hide all that men ?
It could have cost un mag nable amount of money to feed them



That s not the ssue here Our ad v ll be advanc ng toward the capital
We can only hope that they w ll attack the pr me m n ster s back
Sire, they've initiated attacking.

Break down the gate !

Sire, it's too dangerous to be on front Please step back

Now it s time to attack the r wa st
Take every single man we've been hiding in Eida fortress.

Will you protect the ch ld for me Garashon ?

www.janimes.com

Haha
How sad I am
I have to think about passing my child to someone who looks like he going to die before me
Besides what would you know about nursing babies
I've raised a child before
When lady Haga was only a child
When she was still a baby
It was I who was her nursemaid

Lady Haiga's mother must have had some weird taste
Hey..maybe you are a woman ?
I am sure there were a lot of maids Why did she choose you
Lady Haiga's mother passed away not long after she was three months old
There were needed a lot of proper maids
But I've been working for Monica ever since lady Tor Olivia Monica was a baby
I am sure you know that this casle was originally Monica's?
Even through the family fell and everything was sold to lord Tor Lady Monica still trusted me and let me still serve her

I've never had a child of my own before
But for some reason the baby lady Haga followed me well
I was being forgotten as a servant due to my age and inability to labor properly
After lady Hagia became the owner of this castle, she put me on a position of a steward of this castle and made it so that I'd be able to spend last days of my life in peace.
If you take care of my lady's child you'd be serving three generations
It seems this old man still has a purpose
So do not worry
So? Are you saying I have to die? You piss me off

... So, she wasn't just a noble who had an easy life.
She and her brother..., they had a time where they had to grow up without a mother.

That's why I am trying to exercise

And I don't know what the majesty will say about this
The king is busy preparing for the war. So he won't have time to pay attention to me
As long as you don't tell anyone no one will know that I am learning horse riding
Besides he is sleeping with other women now

I want you to take me back to Ramira

The majesty s n battle

That is why you need to be more careful

Why are you being so pessimistic ?
I am saying that you need to be strong
Ramra has never experienced national war except during its creation
Ramra's population is so small that we can't afford to send any country mercenaries
Anatora has more than enough population to send countless mercenaries Thus they have gained vast amount of war experience Thinkingically, will we be able to match them?

And it s time for you to stop pun sh ng yourself for the war
Anator a has wanted to nvade Ram ra for generat ons
They have been abus ng every s ngle excuse to nvade Ram ra The war was nevitable regardless your marr age
Your sole task now s to protect the ch ld
You have to concentrate and spend everyth ng you have to do so

The only heir of Ramira !
You must protect the her no matter what

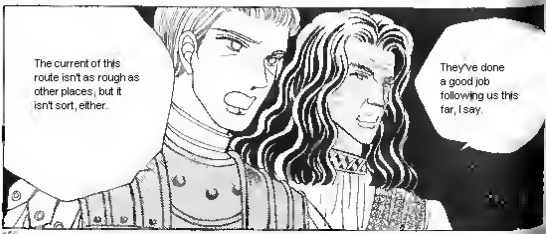
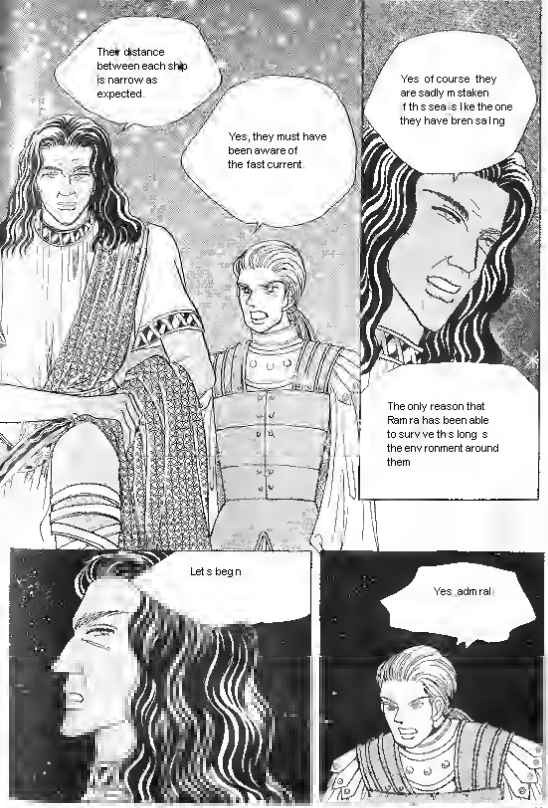
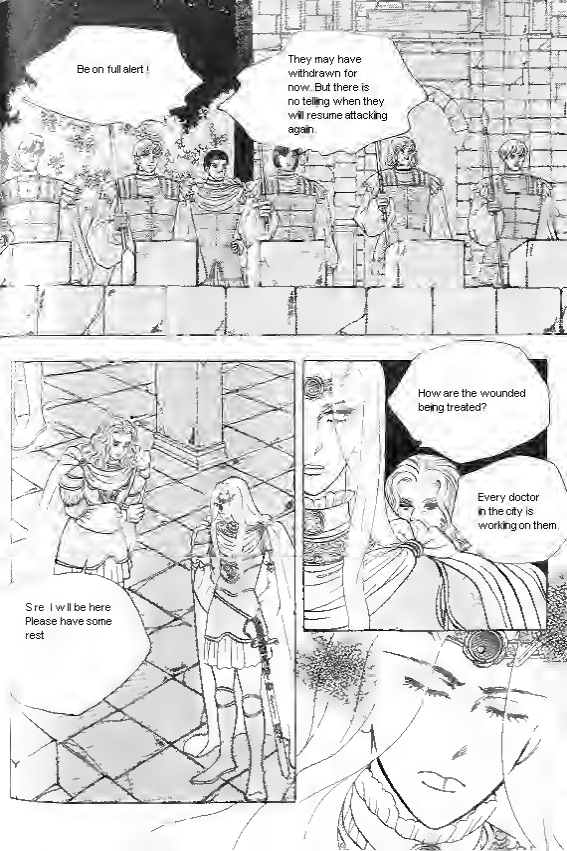
Looks like they have fallen asleep.
They must be exhausted.
They are carrying a lot of men and weapons. Besides, chasing is always harder.



The current of this route isn't as rough as other places, but it isn't sort, either.
They've done a good job following us this far, I say.



Their distance between each ship is narrow as expected.
Yes, they must have been aware of the fast current.
Yes of course they are sadly mistaken if this sea is like the one they have been sailing
The only reason that Ramra has been able to survive this long is the environment around them
Let's begin
Yes, admiral!



Be on full alert !
They may have withdrawn for now. But there is no telling when they will resume attacking again.
How are the wounded being treated?
Every doctor in the city is working on them.
S re I w ll be here Please have some rest

I . . do not want to see it repeat again . . .

By the way,
What is, your majesty?
How did Skadej manage to obtain all that money ?
I wonder something
I am sure h s revot cost h m most of h s personal assets
With Anator a s economy situat on I am sure it was hard to rearrange everyth ng How d d he get the money to bu ld all those sh ps and buy supp es?
Skade has been lowly do ng p rat ng And I am sure the pr me m n ster of Ramra has suppl ed h m with gold

This is the coldest

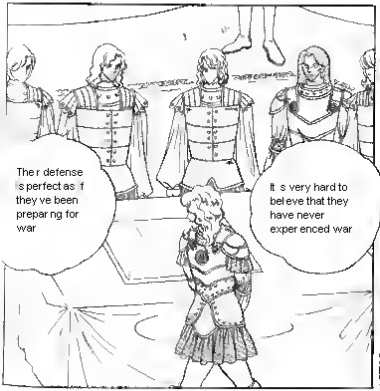
It s been days !
Yet, we haven't made any progress !



Ther defense s perfect as if they ve been prepar ng for war
It s very hard to bel eve that they have never exper enced war

Iidots !

When will the promised reinforcement from Anatora come?
We could conquer the castle easily with them. What's taking them so long?
After I do all the dirty work,
And after I even polish the road will they come then?
They are blocked by admiral Galron who only has 25 ships
What's the point of self claimed war veterans and the great coutnry?

We must not let th s war last long
Once lord Nuke and Harr ot nt ate attack ng the r rear.. we must also attack them from front
When w ll they arr ve ?
After tomorrow
Good !
We also have some mercenar es that adm ral Galron sent to us
Let s do it
